PRESS RELEASE

HOP ALONG TO FAMILY DAYZE

EASTER SUNDAY, 24 APRIL 2011

March 2011 – Sundays are always fun days at KU DE TA, but Family Dayze Easter Sunday (24 April) is the best Sunday of the year with an over-abundance of games, entertainment, food and festivities presented in a carnival-esque atmosphere – not to forget a special guest appearance from the Easter Bunny himself.

As Master of Ceremonies, chocolate-bearer and organiser of the Official Egg Hunt, the Easter Bunny (aka. Peter Cottontail) has uncovered many new hidey-holes across KU DE TA to make this year's friendly Egg Hunt competition even more exciting.

"Easter Sunday is a day of celebration – and KU DE TA does a great job in making that spirit of celebration come to life," says Easter Bunny, twitching his nose in anticipation. But Easter in Bali does pose its challenges: "I'm going to need the kids to really get behind me this year and find all the eggs before they turn to tropical mush," he admits.

As KU DE TA Easter tradition would have it, marquee tents will be on either side of the pool, where a flurry of activities unfold – everything from the creation of Easter eggs to devouring fairy floss, face painting to glitter tattoos. Roving street performers add to the Neverland pageantry with their balloon twisting antics and miraculous illusionary skills ensuring the day is nothing short of wondrous.

Everyone will be waiting for KU DE TA's annual Easter Colouring Competition, where two age groups (2-6 years & 7-12 years) colour to their hearts' content for the chance to win an 'Easter Cuddles Family Pack' value at approximately 3.5 million rupiah (incorporating a 2 million rupiah dinner voucher). Included in each hamper will be a smiling bunny and soft toy centrepiece, as well as every possible piece of Easter candy you can imagine, colouring & activity books, puzzles, games, kids' decorations and more.

While the children play, they also get to munch on the likes of roast lamb shoulder, potatoes, peas and jus or pan-roasted barramundi, potato purée, peas and lemon butter sauce – with yummy strawberry pavlova to top it all off.

The adults will be supping on a KU DE TA-style Easter feast, featuring the likes of herb crumbed quail egg; crispy Moroccan duck bisteeya with parsnip purée, shallots and Pedro Ximenez & dried plum glaze; slow roast lamb shank roulade with caramelised pumpkin purée, thyme spatzle, broad beans and confit garlic jus; and Easter raspberry trifle with vanilla mascarpone, lemon curd, lemongrass and milk chocolate mousse. And this is just a sample of the full menu created for the day.

...all of these activities soundtracked to the dynamic modern Jazz sounds of Khanya Project - live.

So Easter Bunny, is KU DE TA Family Dayze the best way for families to enjoy this Easter Sunday? "Of course," says Easter Bunny. Then he hops off.
